GUIDELINES FOR SUBMITTING REQUESTS TO DMOSC

1. Please fill out the form as completely as possible. Additional information may be added on a second page. The document may be mailed or e-mailed. Form must be signed.
2. The DMOSC Executive and Governing Board meet the second Thursday of the month. By submitting your request by the first of the month, the Charitable Chair has time to review the request and to prepare it to present to the Board. All requests will be reviewed by the DMOSC Board at their meeting. You will be notified of the Board decision within two weeks of the meeting.
3. The DMOSC Board does not meet in June, July and August. Requests received after the 1st of May will be reviewed at the September Board meeting.
4. The DMOSC financial board year is from June 1-May 31. Our Charitable income varies from year to year. Our Thrift Store is our primary source of Charitable income. Please donate items to and shop at our Thrift Store, located at 5085 Flora St, Bldg 1226 (behind the Benko Fitness Center and between 3rd & 5th Streets) on Davis-Monthan AFB.
5. Information that DMOSC considers when reviewing requests:
 - a) How many people will this benefit?
 - b) How will the money benefit the Davis-Monthan AFB community? The local Tucson community? The Air Force community?
 - c) What are the long term benefits of this donation?
 - d) What additional efforts have been made to raise funds?
 - e) Does your organization have other means of support?
6. Please prioritize your needs if you have some items you need more urgently than others. This allows us to fund part of a request if we cannot fund the entire request.
7. The DMOSC is a charitable organization and can only support charitable and educational endeavors pursuant to IRS 501(c)(3). We cannot pay for costs associated with food, beverages, labor, childcare, nor prizes.
8. School requests must be signed by the Principal. Scout requests must be signed by the Troop/Pack Leader. Military-affiliated organizations must be signed by the Commander.
9. Funds cannot be granted to individuals.
